CODICIL CLUB

A Lasting Legacy of Caring for Animals

Our Mission: Caring for pets in need through sheltering, adoption, humane education, spay/neuter services, low-cost wellness and community outreach.

How can I become a member of the CAP Codicil Club?

By adding one sentence to your will, you can pledge your support for the animals by leaving a legacy gift to CAP. Here's how you can make a bequest to CAP in your Will:

The proper wording is "I give, devise and bequeath to Citizens for Animal Protection, Inc. the sum of ____ or ____ % of the residue of my estate in support of its general purposes."

Please notify CAP in writing of your commitment by contacting Executive Director Emeritus, Kappy Muenzer at 281-705-0686 or kappycap@comcast.net. You will automatically be enrolled in the CAP Codicil Club, an elite group of animal lovers leaving a legacy gift to CAP.

What are the benefits of belonging to CAP's Codicil Club?

- CAP hosts informative and fun events twice a year at the shelter for Codicil Club members.
- Each member receives an attractive codicil club pin recognizing his or her commitment.

GIFT IMPACT

Citizens for Animal Protection (CAP) is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization that receives no government funding and relies solely on private donations, primarily from individuals.

Your contribution, large or small, will allow Citizens for Animal Protection to continue to save homeless animals from needless suffering. It is one of the most satisfying investments you can make.

What options are available for bequests and other gifts to ensure the future care of homeless animals?
